

PRESS RELEASE

Sikkim has emerged as one of the most sought after tourist destinations in the world. This is a collective effort of the State Government and all the tourism stakeholders. The Department of Tourism would like to express our gratitude for taking tourism of the State to this height of recognition in the global tourism map. The visitors go back with very pleasant memories of the hospitality extended to them and the publicity which is carried through them have an enormous impact for the popularity of the State.

Department of Tourism would like to appeal to all the service providers to continue with this excellent hospitality which will go a long way in taking Sikkim ahead in the tourism field.

Any complaints regarding misbehavior with the visitors, over charging for services provided and harassment will be dealt with as per the laws and rules in this respect. We must truly follow “Atithi Devo Bhava” and extend our best hospitality to the visitors.
